Arrival of the Arabia. The steamship Arabia, Queenstown ship, arrived at 10 a. m. of the 13th inst. She has 77 passengers for Halifax and 78 for Boston.

The Arabia expressed up to the 11th heavy gales from the north-west to south-east, with heavy rain since the weather was moderate, with an occasional fog. The ship, from New York, arrived at Liverpool on the forenoon of the 1st.

The Arabia arrived at Queenstown at 3 p. m. of the 1st.

Great Britain. The London Times has an editorial on the doings of the Tallahassee, and says: "Though we must acknowledge the energy and skill of those Confederate commanders, we can have no sympathy with the pacifist kind of warfare which they carry on."

The New York correspondent of the London Times continues to write from Niagara Falls as to the Democratic war-spirit in that place in regard to the Convention. He remarks that if the result of the Convention is a platform for a more aggressive war, he is in favor of it.

The weekly returns of the Bank of France show a decrease in cash of 1,250,000 francs. A decree has been signed by the Emperor for the appointment of a new minister of finance.

The Paris correspondent of the Standard, writing on the evening of the 14th, says: "The report of the Emperor's indisposition is not devoid of foundation. His Majesty was compelled to rest for a few days."

The Austro-Italian war continues. The Austrian army has been defeated in the battle of Solferino. The Emperor has issued a decree of amnesty for political offenders.
